

Mesopartner Academy - Facilitate change that matters

PROGRAMME

Monday

- Session 1.1 The role of a change facilitator
- Session 1.2 Systemic Insight as a process method to enable learning, adaptation & change
- Session 1.3 Understanding complex adaptive systems
- Session 1.4 Mapping actors, patterns and relations
- Session 1.5 Exploring adjacent possibilities for change

Tuesday

- Session 2.1 Harnessing polarities and contradictions
- Session 2.2 Shaping the dynamic of interactions over time (past, present, emergent future)
- Session 2.3 The process of socio-economic change: The co-evolution of institutions, industries, technologies and places
- Session 2.4 Understanding stakeholders' readiness for change (Power, interest and legitimacy)
- Session 2.5 Maintaining situational awareness in teams & networks
- Evening Group outing and dinner

Wednesday

- Session 3.1 Combining different forms of facilitation in events and processes
- Session 3.2 Contextual input: Climate & sustainability
- Session 3.3 Possibility mapping using the Estuarine Mapping method
- Afternoon Free afternoon from 15:20 onwards

Thursday

- Session 4.1 Shaping priorities for change and stability
- Session 4.2 Appropriate action suited to different contexts
- Session 4.3 Designing portfolios of interventions (clear, complicated, complex, liminal)
- Session 4.4 Large Scale Change methods: Input and application
- Session 4.5 Peer learning about event content and its implications (World Café)
- Evening Group dinner

Friday

- Session 5.1 Theories of change and evaluating progress
- Session 5.2 Making progress visible
- Session 5.3 Adjusting our change processes
- Closing Transfer out